Norfolk Social.

Johnston. Mrs. John Jenkins and Miss Camilla Jenkins have returned to Elizabeth City, after a short visit to relatives in Nor-(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CREWE, VA., April 14.-About thirty Johns and the relatives in Norfolk.

Mrs. Bradley and Mr. Bradley, of Washington, are visiting Mrs. Clark. on Failfax Avenue.

Mrs. Robertson, of Charlottesville, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Alan R. Hanckel, on Bute Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Browne, who were visiting their mother, Mrs. Helen M. Browne, in Gheni, have returned to their home in New York.

Mrs. J. Leighton Hubard and Mrs. J. Leighton Hubard gave a tea on Saturday afternoon at their home, on Freemason Street, in honor of Mrs. Merritt, of Asheville, N.C.; Mrs. Henry Douglas, of Bullimoré: Mrs. Bell, of Glasgow, Scotland, and Miss Ellen Glasgow, of Richmond. Tea was pourded by Mrs. William Lauder. Cantain Fiske, U. S. N., gave a dinner Saturday evening on board the U. S. Minneapolls. Covers were laid for seven and those present were:

Lieutennia and Mrs. Leigh, Lieutenant and Mrs. Harvy Madison, Paymaster and Mrs. Harvy Madison, Paymaster and Mrs. Clew. of Warrenton, Va., is the Army Chew for warrenton, Va., is the Army Chew for warrenton, Va., is the Army for the relative Mrs. Harry L. Myers. of the younger people of the Christian church divided themselves into Pinks Blues and in one month's time turned into the treasury one hundred dollars. The Pinks, under the generalship of Miss Mamie Ellett, won the contest, having raised sixty-five of the one hundred. The Blues were lead by Miss W. T. Vaughan.

dred. The Blues were lead by Mrs. W. T. Vaughan.

Mrs. Wayt Royall and son, Wayt, Jr., are visiting Mr. E. Moore's family.

Messrs. Edmund and Perry Glils visited their home peope here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Zirkle visited the latter's parents here this week.

Rev. L. D. Scott spent several days this week in Fredericksburg attending East Hanover Presbytery.

Mrs. Wilbur Brown, accompanied her husband's remains here from Portsmouth, Obio, and is now suffering from nervous prostration, due to the shock of her husband's sad death, in a collision on the Norfolk & Western last week. in Ghent.

Mrs. Alex Bell, formerly of Norfolk.

Mrs. Joseph R. Hubard, on Freemann Norfolk & Western last week.
Miss Mattle Becker, of Bluefield, is visiting friends here.

Mrs. William Ellett has returned from

Miss Julia Bewerton, of Elizabeth, N. J., is visiting Mrs. Cornellus DeWitt, on Freemason Street. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BRISTOL, VA., April 14.—The Bristol
German Club indulged in a dance on Tuesday night, and the same was largely

Mrs. William Ellett has returned from the hospital in Richmond, much improved in health. Her daughter, Mrs. Paul Tunstall, accompanied her home.

The public school gave a holiday for Easter from the 12th until the 17th.

All of the teachers left for their respective homes.

Mr. James Andrews is getting out again after a long spell of sickness.

Miss Alice Wilson and brother, Preston, are spending their Easter in Petersburg.

Mrs. J. Louis Chappell and babies, will visiter her sister in Roanoke next week.

Rev. Samuel T. Burgess, of Lynchburg.

day morning and evening.

Mrs. Geogre W. Oliver is visiting Mrs. Tuesday night, and the same was stended by the younger set.

Mr. W. L. Stafford, tleket agent at the Union Station, having been granted a three-months' leave of absence on account of ill health, left on Tuesday for Mineral Wells, Texas. Mrs. Stafford and Mineral Wells, Texas. Mrs. Cap. Roye.

will preach at the District of the Mrs. Mrs. George W. Oliver is visiting Mrs. Maggie Wells, of Rice.

Misses Florence and Lucy Wilson are Mrs. Preser at their home near Wilspending Easter at their home near liams' Mills.

Miss Maud Vaughan, of Overby, is the

ASHLAND AFFAIRS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ASHLAND, VA., April 14.-Miss French Central Presbyterian Church has been in-stalled and was used for the first time on last Sunday, when a special musical programme was rendered. The occasion caused the church to be crowded. Mrs. Duval Cravens, of Murfreesboro, Tenn., is visiting her mother, Mrs. C. V. Fain, on Anderson Street. Mrs. M. J. Opales is at home after a wheet with the Asheville, N. C. a returned missionary from China, spoke on the subject of missions in China, in the Presbyterian church here this af-

An interesting game of baseball is scheduled for next Saturday on the college campus here between the Richmond Athletics and the Ashland Club. The line-up of the Ashland team is as follows: Leake, p. and Cross c.; Phillips, s.s.; Mills, f. b.; Boone, sec. base.; s.s.; Mills, f. b.; Boone, sec. base; Swift, third b.; Bridges, l. f.; Jordan, c. f.; Winston, r. f. Mr. Allan Maury has purchased the Canter residential property on Clay Street, adjoining Mrs. M. M. Baldwin, and will occupy same after September and his family now reside in Philadelphia, but Mr. Fleck frequently visits here. He was formerly president of the Holston Club, one of the leading social organiza-Miss Mary Wright, of Bowling Green Va., is visiting her mother in Ashland Miss Susie Lipscomb is expected t visit Ashland this week

Miss Susie Lipscomb is expected visit Ashland this week.

Miss Anna Rice and Miss Edna Fairbanks, of Fredericksburg, Va., are visiting Mrs. Charles Blakey.

The Henry Clay Inn was opened here to-day under very favorable conditions, and sixteen guests registered during the day. Mr. Burgess, of Charlottesville, is managing the hotel for Messra. Taylor.

Miss Elizabeth Davis, of Petersburg, Va., is here attending the public debate of the college; also Mrs. R. B. Davis, Miss Martha Grigg and Miss Berta Hamilton and Miss Julia Anderson.

Miss Eloise Browning, of Washington, is visiting Mrs. James Chenery here.

Mr. Herbert Lipscomb, of Johns Hopkins University, is visiting here.

yet.

Mrs. N. B. ReMine and two little sons, ciarence and Edwin, are expected home from Sanibel, Fla., next week, where they spent the entire winter.

MILLER SCHOOL, VA., April 14.-Dr. Kent, of the University of Virginia, talked to the Longly and Vawter Literary Societies Saturady evening on the subject of his trip abroad, especially in Germany

CARTERSVILLE, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CARTERSVILLE, VA., April 14.—The Easter sale for the benefit of the Baptist Church Improvement Fund was held of Mr. Granville Taylor.

The "high ten" given Saturady evening by the Domestic Science Department to the "Batchelor's Row Table," was a grand success, socially and otherwise, Miss Simon, the head of the department, knows how to touch the "spot." While the "feast of fat things" were being "downed," wit and humor flowed freely evened.

tist Church Improvement Fund was held Thursday from three o'clock to ten o'clock. There were numerous attractions. A fancy wood booth with Miss Helen Reynolds in chargs, was an attractive spot and did a rushing business.

Miss Marie Rhodes all the post office, and Miss Lily Dickinson at the candy counter, had their time employed fully, while Mrs. Otey Anderson, in the gypsy tent, attracted all the young folk to find out what their fortune might be.

The ice cream booth was by no, means a lesser attraction. Almost overything was sold out and the affair was a decided success, financially, as well as socially. around.

Mr. James Elliott Vawter returned this week from Blacksburg.

Tennis is now "on," Messrs Grinsted, Beale, Thomasson and Latanar, are the star players among the gentlemen, and Miss Leona Vawter is the star of the ladder.

Robes, $12.50.

Just thirty, and they should all fering is appreciated as it should Circular skirt, with deep embroid-circular skirt, with deep embroid-ered flounce, in blind and Anglaise derigns; walst has handsomely em-broidered front, collar and cuff bands. Monday, these, $12.50.

Special Hosiery Values. Silked Lisle Hose.

Ladies' Extra Fine Gauze, Thin and Webby Gauze, Silken Gauze Lisic Hose-

The 75c kinds, here ... 50c. Ladies' Boot and Allover Lace Lisio Hose, new patterns, 50c.

Table Linens.

5-8 Napkins to match, $3.00 a

White Ouilts.

Crachet Quilts, See to $2.25. Fringed Crochet Quiits, $1,50 to Summer Blankets, $4,00 to $8,50. Dimity Quilts, 10-4, 11-4 and 12-4 sizes, at special prices.

We mention a few below:

$59.50 Suit, Now $49.50.

$49.50 Suits, Now $39.50.

Four Volle Suits, stylish Etons, colors black, navy and Alice blue; were $49.50, now $39.50.

Come early Monday morning and pick from these lots. Many of the fabrics mentioned below are special bargains-lots that have just arrived.

48 inches wide, sheer and fine, soft and clingy.
The 20c kind, special, 15c. The 25c kind, special, 19c.
The 35c kind, special, 25c.

$2-inch Persian Lawis, unusually fine and sheer.
The 17c kind, special, 12 1-2c. The 20c kind, special, 14c.
The 25c kind, special, 17c. The 35c kind, special, 25c.

Efleures.

White Goods, Wash Goods.

This is the Time to Buy and the Time to Save.

Display Centre Table Right Hand Aisle.

The season's choicest and most stylish cotton novelty, new and stylish designs and colorings and in plain colors; shown only here, 50c.

Printed Organdles, fine and sheer, new and tasty patterns and colorings, 12 1-2c, 25c, 37 1-2c. Organdy Carreaux, in new and very exclusive patterns and colorings, 25c, 50c.

Colored Madras, in neat checks, stripes and designs for men's hirts 25e to 87 1-20.

Mercerized Ginghams, in checks, large plaids and e

$7.50 White

Shirtwaist Suits.

Special $5,98.

$1.25 and $1.50 White

Lawn Shirtwaists, 98c

Special for Monday—Six styles of exceptional values of Lawn Shirt Waists, either lace or em-broidery trimmed; made, finished and the style you usually get in a waist at double the prices; either short or long sleeves, special, OSc.

Two special lots of High Grade Taffeta Silk Patterns, the best values ever shown in Richmond for the money.

Silk Petticoats, about 50, in plain colors of blue, pink, old rose, laven-der, green and changeable, made deep ruffle and slik dust ruffle; were $6.50, now $4.98.

Silk Petticoats, about 25, elegant black and all colors; were $10.00

Silk Petticoats.

32-inch Linen Finish, 10e and 12 1-2c, 36-inch Auto Cloth, 15e. Scotch Cheviots, in solid colors, 35c. Scotch Plaid Gingiams, 25c, 50e. Kimono Crepes, in new patterns, 15c.

silk and linen,

$1 to $12.

New Brits-Ask to see the Per-complete match sets, in an immense variety of new patterns, 25d to $6,00 a piece.

New Baby Irish, French Irish, Cluny and Oriental Allovers, $1.50 to $12.00.

Edges and Bands to match. Batiste Allovers, in new and exceedingly handsome designs, 50e to $12.00.

Edges and Bands to match.

New Embroideries.

Batiste and Swiss Flouncings, in white and cream, new and exclusive designs; bands to match, $1.00 to $5.00.

New Cotton Dress Nots, in white, cream and ecru, 75c.
New Silk Nets, in new and tasty patterns, $1.50 to $6.00.

Remnants of Laces and Embroid-erics at less than half price.

Genuine "Rajah" Silk Suiting.

The most pronounced silk suc-cess of the century. Sold exclu-sively by us in Richmond.

It is growing in favor every day.
It is the best rough silk sulting made. It is distinctive, without being conspicuous. Richness in appearance is one of its charming characteristics. We have just received a shipment, embracing all the latest and most desired shades.
This silk is an unusual value, at is silk is an unusual value, at Richmond's leading stock is here. Here style and quality and low prices go hand in hand; that's why, our silk business is increasing.

60c a yard, special at 59c.
75c Black Taffeta, cannot be duplicated under 75c par yard; special, 65c a yard.
82,00 Black Peau de Sole, $1.50 a yard. 36-inch Black Peau de Soie, was $2,00 a yard, now $1.50 a yard. $1.25 Black Guaranteed Taffeta,

$1.00. A special value in Clifton Bond Taffeta, 24 inches wide, with ab-solute guarantee to wear; was $1.25, now $1.00 a yard.

Crepe de Chine.

Captain George Brooke, U. S. A., and Mrs. Brooke; Captain James Mitchell, U. S. A., and Mrs. Mitchell; Mrs. Charles Wray. of Washington; Mrs. Lawrence Brown, of Fort McKinley, Missouri; Mrs. Calling Mrs. Charles Wray. of Fort McKinley, Missouri; Mrs. Calling Brown, of Fort McKinley, Missouri; Mrs. William Bullard, of Washington; General Thomas Sullivan. U. S. A.; Major and Mrs. Charles J. Balloy. Captain Brooke Payne, Captain Francis N. Captain Brooke Payne, Captain Francis N. Cooke and Captain Robert Helton, of Fortress Monroe; Captain Kenley, U. S. A.; Captain and Mrs. John H. Gifford and Mr. and Mrs. George F. Adams, of Old Point. Captain Robert H. Kelton gave a dinner, followed by bridge, on Monday evening, for Mrs. Osborne.

Before the hop at the Chamberlin last Saturday evening, Mrs. Lawrence Brown was the hostess at a dinner for Miss Grace Fackler, of New York.
Mr. and Mrs. George Putnam Watkins and Miss Florence Watkins, of Lynchburg, were at the Chamberlin for the week-end.

Gusts now at the Chamberlin include Mrs. Joacob Bradley, Miss Ethel Bradley, Mrs. Roheson, Miss Grace Feat, Rochesier, Cincinnati, Mrs. R. H. Davenport, Pittsfield, Mass.

ter, Mrs. Carol M. Newman at Tutwier's Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Grumbine, of Titusville, Pa., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Albert Jay Nock at the Episcopal rectory, Mr. and Mrs. Locke, of Titusville, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Nock at the Episcopal rectory.

Dr. Carol M. Newman, associate professor of English in the institute, will leave shortly for several months' visit to the European continent. Dr. Newman will sail directly to Naples and then work his way gradually through Italy. Switzerland and France to England, whence he will return to this country.

Colonel R. A. Marr, dean of the engineering department, will spend the summer vacation looking after construction work for the South and Western Railroad.

Work has been resumed on the agri-work has been resumed on the agricultural hall, which has stood in its present uncompleted form for several months. It is hoped to have the building finished by the beginning of next session.

The family of Mr. John R. Fain, manager of the college farm, have moved to Hacksburg, and are now occupying their handsome new residence on the college campus.

who has been visiting Mrs. Alexander Black, has returned to her home after Saveral weeks' sojourn here.

Miss Lochie Linkous, of St. Mary's Academy, will leave at the close of her school term for a tour of Europe, Miss Emma Walker left on Friday for school term for a tour of Earlose.

Miss Emma Walker left on Friday for several weeks' visit to her sister, Mrs. Montagus Coleman, at Rockfish, Nelson county.

Mrs. W. H. Rosche, wife of Professor W. H. Rosche, of the lustitute, has returned after several months' visit to her parents in New Orleans.

Miss Saumders, of Rocky Mount, is visiting her brother, Professor W. D. Saunders, on the campus.

Rev. Mr. Chace, of Chicago, is visiting at the "Grove," the home of President J. M. McBryde, of the institute.

Squires, the center fielder of the V. P. I. baseball team, was quite badly spiked by Shepherd in the game against Washington and Lee University last Friday, and is as yet unable to resume his place on the team. Squires and Shepherd were on the team. Squires and Shepherd wer running after a ball which was hit t

Of Wall Papers, Draperles and Uphol-stery, Goods in design and colorings that you've naver seen before; for our entire stock is new and up-to-date, including many imported fabrics.

We have just completed arrangements with a Fifth Avenue, New York, and Rue de la Victoire, Parls, factory that makes the most elegant and artistic decorations and furnishings in the world, by which we are enabled to furnish your home from their immense stocks. We have the taste and experience necessary to devise color schemes, make the proper selections and hang the draperies.

One Cream White Serge Suit, Eton white trimmed; was $45.00, now $35.00.

One Cream White Figured Panama Suit, was $35.00, no

ville, Ky., where she will be treated at a hospital of that city.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

shortly for Covington.

Mrs. Virginia Bowles has returned home after spending several months in Ports-

P. J. McGrath, of Arvonia, visited

Mr. P. J. McGrath, of Avona, values Scottsville Tuesday. Mr. A. L. Seay was in the town Friday. Miss Hattle Foland has left for Arvon, to spend saveral weeks. The Misses Wingfield, of Warren, vis-

WILMINGTON, N. C.

will be crowded three of the most brilgeance from its Lenten sleep next week, and into the small space of six days will be crowded three of the most bril-liant marriages ever celebrated in this

We know a good Trunk when we

We can give you Trunks answer all sorts of requirements ttom prices for truly good ar-

703 East Broad Street.

card parties, with teas and ladies on the side.

A large number of visitors will be here Josephine Budd and Ann Belle Patteson, of Fetersburg, Va., who arrived this week, and will be numbered with the wedding party of the Bellamy-Wood nupitals. Misses Annabell and Belle Latimer are also expected from their Northern home to attend this wedding. Yet after all general interest centers upon the convention of the Society of the Cincinnati, which will be held in this city Thursday of next week. The business session wil be held in the morning, and at night an elaborate banquet will take place. The present officers of the North Carolina Society of the Cincinnati are Wilson G. Lamb, of Williamston, president; John C. Daves, of Baltimore, Md., vice-president; General Thomas L. Davis, U. S. A. secretary; W. D. Carstarphen, of Plymouth, treasurer; DeLancey Haywood, of Raleigh, assistant treasurer, and Right Rev. Bishop Joseph Blount, Cheshire, chaplain.

Besides the officers many other distin-

Besides the officers many other distin-

BRISTOL, VA.

Stafford's sister, Mrs. C. P., Rowe,

att Bedford, Ind.
Miss Elizabeth Winston gave a piano recital at Virginia Institute on Thursday night. The occasion brought out many of

Mr. Baxter Taylor addressed the school at Hamilton Institute, Mendota, Va., on the occasion of the closing exercises Tues-

Central Presbyterian Church has been in visit to Asheville, N. C. George L. Carter and little son, a are spending a few weeks at Marthe guest of her sister, Mrs. J.

little son, who left here early in the year for a trip to Europe, are now in Egypt. They will be absent for several weeks ject of his trip abroad, especially in Ger-many. The talk was very instructive and entertaining. He also preached on Sunday to an appreciative audience.

MILLER SCHOOL

Miss Craun of the Valley, as a guest of Mr. Granville Taylor.

Miss Leona Vawter is the star of the Indies.

PEOPLE AT FRANKLIN

(Special to The Times-Diepatch.)
FRANKLIN, VA., April M.—Mrs. W. H.
Jenkins spent Monday and Tuceday in Norfolk this week.
Mrs. J. D. Hart and little son, of Parksley, Va., are visiting at the home of Mr.
J. C. Parker, on High Street.
Mr. Cell and his crew of workmen from Murfreesboro, have started work on the big brick werehouse for Mr. C. A. Cutchins, to replace the one recently burned.
Mrs. A. L. Davis, of Petresburg, va., is the guests of Mr. W. T. Fagan's family, on South Street.
Mr. Luther E. Beaman, who has been

To-morrow never comes. The dollar of to-day is the only sure foundation Money deposited here grows gradually, steadily, certainly. It earns 3 per cent. Compound interest. $1 Opens an Account.

If out of town, you can bank by mail,

National Bank Planters Savings Department, Richmond, Va.

70-inch Extra Fine and Heavy Scotch Damask, in new and very effective patterns; the $1.25 kind, $1.00 a yard.

3-4 Napkins to match, $4.00 a

Fringed Marsellles Quilts, $3.50 to $6.00.

A6 inches wide, sheer and fine, elegant washers and wearers.
An immense new lot just in, bought by us as a bargain and to be given you as one.
The 25c kind, special, 17c. The 35c kind, special, 23c.
The 37kc kind, special, 25c. The 40c kind, special, 20c.
The 50c kind, special, 35c. The 60c kind, special, 40c.

Persian Lawns.

Printed Silk Mousseline and Tissues, in new and rich pat-

Organdy Balsorine, new and very stylish, 50c, Henley Serges, in all colors, 15c.

A special bargain as long as they inst. Made of sheer merce-rized lawn, both waist and skirt elaborately trimmed with Val. laco Black Taffeta Silk. Specially Priced. elaborately trimmed with vill. and and embroidery; waist made with square yoke effect of Swiss embroidery and Val. lace inserting, large, full trimmed sleeves, with deep cuff of lace embroidery; the skirt made full wide, trimmed with tucks, Val. lace and embroidery insertion; $7.50 value, special $5.98.

Specially Priced.

36-inch, to equal any $1.15 a yard,
now $1.00 a yard.

36-inch, to equal any $1.50 a yard,
now $1.15 a yard,
now $1.15 a yard,
36-inch, to equal any $2.00 a yard,
now $1.50 a yard,
59c Black Taffetas now 59c a yard,
Pure Slik Taffetas, yarn dyed,
19 inches wide; sells everywhere for
69c a yard, special at 59c.

All Slik Crepe de Chine, in a full line of new shades. This crepe cannot be duplicated for less than 75c per yard; it is 34 inches wide, and the price, special, 59c a yard. 44-inch Black Crepe de Chine, worth $2.00, special, $1.50 a yard. 44-inch Black Crepe de Chine, value $3.00, opeyial, $2.50 a yard. 44-inch Black Crepe de Chine, value $3.50, special $2.00 per yard.

OLD POINT COMFORT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
OLD POINT COMFORT, VA., April 14.—
The Easter season finds the Old Point hotels literally packed with guests. Holy Week, was observed to a certain extent and social functions were not quite so numerous as heretofore. The hop at the Chamberlin to-night will mark the beginning of a round of gaiety which will continue for several weeks.
The largest dinner of the week was given on Tuesday evening by Mrs. Francis S. Brown for Mrs. James Kerr Osborne, of Toronto. Other guests wera Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Christie, of Toronto; Captain George Brooks, U. S. A., and Mrs. Mitchell; Mrs. Charles Wray, of Washington: Mrs. Larries

BLACKSBURG, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BLACKSBURG, VA., April 14.-Miss Alice Fain, of Bristol, is visiting her sis-ter, Mrs. Carol M. Newman at Tutwiler's ampus.

Miss Essie Archer, formerly of the in-the Misses Patton in the Moncure apart-

Miss Armanda Williams, of Lynchburg

Over our stock before purchasing your Interior Decorations. We have an amazingly ATTRACTIVE ARRAY

ANNOUNCEMENT.

N. B. DAHL & CO. The Shop of the Craftsmen, 19 East Main. 'Phone 5585, SCOTTSVILLE, VA.

Town Council Tuesday decided that the new sidewalks should be laid immediately. A civil engineer has been secured to do the surveying, and as soon as the sidewalks are laid off the grading will be because

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Is one that looks well, wears well and keeps your clothing in good

Do You? Our long experience is at your

Rountree's Trunk Store,

receptions in honor of visiting young

Emerson-Van Leuven, Wright-Van Buren and Bellamy-Wood marringes will follow each other in succession, commencing Monday and the Eastfollowed by the Easter function of the L'Agile Club on Friday night. A large number of visitors will be here to attend the events, including Misses

Rev. Hishop Joseph Bloder.

Resides the officers many other distinguished men are expected to attend the convention, including General Julian S., Carr. of Durham, N. C., and Messra-James Aiston Cabell and James I. McRee, of Richmond, Va. Mrs. McRee is expected to accompany Mr. McRee.

On next Friday morning the Society of the Cincinnati will attend in this city ceremonies attendant upon the laying of the corner-stone of the monument to Cornellus Harnett, which is being creeted by the North Carolina Society by Lleutonant-Governor Francis D. Winston, who is also grand master of the Grand Lodgo of Masons of North Carolina, Following the laying of the corner-stone tha society will be the guest of the Colonial Dames on a trip down the rivet to Brunswick, where a visit will be paid old St. Phillip's Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Tenche Coxe, who have been wintering how, expect to return to their home in Ashaville next week, and Mrs. Thomas Settle, a sister of Mrs. Coxe, will also return at that time to her Ashaville home.

The Sorosis of this city has selected the following delegates and alternates to attend the annual federation in Chaflotto the first week in next month: Mrs. Walker Taylor and Mrs. R. W. Hicks, delegates, and Mrs. Andrew J. Rowell, Jr., and Mrs. George F. French, alternates is the State secretary, will also attend.

mates.

Miss Margaret Gibson, of this city, who is the State secretary, will also attend.

Mr. A. J. Gray, of Richmond, arrived in the city Thursday to spend Easter with his wife, who is the guest here of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Springer.

Miss Isabel Rountree arrived this week from New York city, which she rotches last week from an extended Europeantric

4/

Surplus and Profits, $900,000. Capital, $300,000.

TWO SPECIAL VALUES.

Satin and Marseilles Quilts, $2,25 to $10,00. Crib Quilts, 75e to $2,50.

French Lawns. Six Special Values.

French Leno Muslins, 50c Ones, Special 25c.

A Special Reduction Sale

In New Spring Suits We shall put on sale Monday all odd suits or broken lines of sizes-ALL NEW, THIS SEASON'S GOODS-We have just passed through the largest spring season of suits we have ever had, in fact, it has passed our most sanguine expectations; this naturally leaves us with quite a large assortment of odd suits from our very best styles of spring garments. We have decided TO CUT THE PRICE; we have two reasons for doing this-we wish to clean our stock of these garments, and also to give our customers the benefit of a rare bargain in a suit in time for wear before the hot season comes on,

One Black Invisible Plaid Eton Volla Suit, silk lined, now $49.50.

One Handsome Navy Blue Voile Suit, silk drop; stylish Eton, with collar of deep cream lace; was $59.50, now $49.50. Three Very Stylish Volle Sults, colors navy and gray; Etons stylishly trimmed with fancy light braids; were $55.00, now

Two Volle Suits, colors reseds and green; Etons trimmed in braid and fancy buttons; were $59.50, now $45.00.

One Very Fashionable Lavender Cloth Suit, Eton trimmed the embroidery and braid of same shade; was $45.00, now

One Gray Cloth Buit, made close fitting, collar and cuffs embroidered, handsome buttons and finished with white cloth; was $55.00, now $85.00. One Alice Blue Panama Suit, eton trimmed in white and gilt; was $49.50, now $39.50.

One Gray Cloth Suit, very stylish pony coat, beautifully llored and trimmed; was $55.00, now $39.50.

One Fancy Blue Plaid Volle Suit, Eton jacket, princess drt, trimmed with braid, buttons and taffeta; was $59.50, Four Very Stylish Suits of Panama Cloth, colors reseda and old rose; Etons neatly trimmed with gilt and white braid; were $35.00, now $25.00.

Two Thoroughly Stylish White Serge Suits, Eton trimmed with white and gilt; were $45.00, now $31.50. Two Cream White Serge Suits. Etons trimmed with white described braid and white lace; were $49.50, now $39.50.

short center, and collided. The occurrence was purely accidental, and served to cripple the team considerably, since Squires is the leading battiman on the home team. Rev. W. H. Joyce, who was recently assigned to the Methodist Church here by Bishop Wilson, has arrived with his family, and is installed at the parsonage. Rev. and Mrs. Fultz departed for Baltimore on Monday, where Mr. Fultz will take up his work at St. Luke's Church. Colonel R. A. Marr and his class of students in civil engineering went to Christianshurg Saturday to survey a route for the proposed electric railway between Cambria and Christiansburg.

Messrs. Ed. Martin, Edgar Wilson and Sam Bodell have left Blacksburg to accept positions at Tug River.

FRONT ROYAL, VA. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FRONT ROYAL, VA., April 14.—Miss Ethel Johnson, who has been visiting in Richmond, Va., and Washington, D. C.,

Richmond, Va., and Washington, D. C., has returned home.
Miss Annie Dovell, of Luray, Ya., who has been visiting her brother, Mr. H. H. Dovell, has gone to Baltimore, Md., for a short stay. , short stay, Miss Mason, of Charlestown, W. Va., nd Miss B. Browning, of Rappahannock nunty, Va., are the guests of Miss Byrd county, Va., are the guests of Miss Byrd Turner.

Mr. Frank Evans, who has been located here for some time, has gone to Washington, D. C., to engage in the real estate insiness with his brother-in-law.

Mrs. Charles L. Melton, who has been at the Memorial Hospital at Winchester, Va., for treatment, has returned home much improved in health.

Miss Valley Balthis has returned home after a lengthy stay with friends at Roanoke and Salem, Va.

Mrs. R. B. Murphy and daughter have returned home after spending the winter in Ohio and Clifton Forge, Va.

Mrs. Charles A. Macatee, Jr., accompanied by her little daughter, of Clifton Forge, Va., are the guest of her parents, Colonel and Mrs. R. B. Murphy.

BIG STONE GAP, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BIG STONE GAP, VA., April 14.—The Cumberland Traction Company, chartered to build an electric railroad from Big Stone Gap to Norton via Appalachia and Blackwood, was granted a franchise by the town of Big Stone Gap at the April meeting of the Town Council to construct an electric railway here.

The Cumberland Traction Company is made up of the best business men of this section. Work will begin on the new line at once.

The Executive Committee of the Coal Fields Baschall League met here Saturday night. The following members were present: W. W. Kemp, representing Dockester; W. A. Millard, representing Big Stone Gap.

Mr. J. S. Asbury, of Imboden, was elected secretary and treasurer. A schedule of games will be arranged within the next few days.

Mrs. W. T. Goodloe, of Big Stone Gap, who has been in delicate health for several months, left Tuesday night, accompanied by her husband, Mr. W. T. Goodloe, and Mrs. Jerusha Goodloe, for Louis-

The Misses Wingfield, of Warren, visited the town Wednesday.
Mrs. Gordon Marrick, of Glendewer, is out again after an illness of several weeks.
Dr. B. L. Dillard, of Alberene, spent a day or two here this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Jore Cleveland, of Chiral Plains, visited the town a few days ago.
Mr. Edward Moon, of Hardman, was in Beottsville this week.

